

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.

This blatant abuse
of public airwaves
is unacceptable.
When trivial
nonsense like a
nipple or a bit of foul language can result in enormous
fines, why is
nothing being done
to stop the far more important issue of
Big Media?
